2016 ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Conceived and created with Supervisor Eric Mar and community allies a brand-new home care subsidy program, called Support at Home, and secured $1.65 million in city funding for the launch!
- Supported the Dignity Fund, which became law when voters passed Proposition I and will fund needed programs for seniors and people with disabilities.
- Collected video and written stories of seniors and people with disabilities living in SRO hotels. Won $500,000 in the city budget to fix SRO elevators.
- Helped pass ballot propositions in June and November 2016 to increase inclusionary housing levels and build more affordable housing.
- Supported the Domestic Workers Bill of Rights to establish permanent overtime protection for home care workers!
- Trained more than 150 people in workshops on disability and ableism.

- Distributed more than 1,000 “Know Your Rights” tenant information sheets in five languages.
- Took action on pedestrian safety with Senior and Disability University classes and town hall meetings in the Bayview, SOMA, and Western Addition.
- With allies, successfully advocated for MTA to improve signage at 7th and Market, following the death of a person in a wheelchair in a car crash.
- Prepared 6 Peer Advocates to assist seniors and people with disabilities with advocacy and referrals to live safely in their homes.
- Successfully sought funding for a new home modifications program, to enable renters and homeowners to stay safely in their homes.
- Participated in a statewide coalition that won a statewide increase in SSI payments.
- Improved short-term rental regulation and enforcement to prevent evictions of low-income tenants.
- Educated over 110 people at Eastern Park Apartments, in the largest Survival School to date.
- Partnered with the California Domestic Workers Coalition and Hand in Hand to conduct a survey and put out a comprehensive report of people who employ home attendants and other domestic workers.
